Compromise Farm Price Plan Offered

Washington, July 7 (AP)—Senators offered Secretary of Agriculture Brannan a compromise farm price plan today after he told them farmers' returns are down about as far as they can go without serious results.

They proposed to approve immediate operation of high-level price props for the ten major farm crops. These would include wheat, corn, soybeans, cotton, and hogs, chickens, eggs, and lamb.

In the main the new program would amount to speeding up the price-support program voted by the last congress under sponsorship of the Aiken (R-Vt) plan now is due to be effective at the end of this year.

Brannan told reporters the new plan proposed would allow him to use his system of "production payments" to farmers to bolster their incomes if market prices sagged below computed levels.

Brannan, who had lashed out at the Aiken plan earlier as a "starving out process," indicated he might agree to the new proposal.

He was to return to a second session later today of the senate agriculture subcommittee hearing.

Brannan told reporters that the new proposal — apparently combining main features of the Aiken plan with some proposals of Brannan — still retains the theory of price supports for certain crops rather than his idea of pegging farm incomes.

He said it would be better than no action at all at this session.

DOROTHY DIX Why Boys Like Girls

Dear Miss Dix: Please print a list of qualities that boys desire in girls. I am not so popular.

Answer: There are no standard thirty-seven varieties of charms that appeal to the taste of all boys, so nobody can give you any hard and fast rule for achieving popularity with the choosy and hard-to-please sex.

The very quality for which one boy falls leaves another boy cold. Some boys like a girl tall and others like a girl short. Some like a girl athletic and others like a girl demure.

Some are all for the vivacious girl, while others are swept of their feet by a prim little maiden who have never a word to say for themselves. So there you are, and there are the boys and not one in a hundred could tell you to save his life just what he saw in some particular girl that made him prefer her to all the balance.

Of course, we think of beauty as the most potent attraction that a girl can have for a man. Probably it is, but beauty lies in the eye of the beholder and men can't even make a hit with men. Fortunately for her, men never differentiate between a girl and her clothes, and good grooming and a pretty frock will make any girl at least passably attractive, even if she wouldn't take a prize in a beauty show.

Boys like a girl who is a good listener and who has the knack of drawing them out and getting them to talk about themselves and what a woe they are with the subject of current interest, but they steer clear of a highbrow who wants to discuss the Einstein theory. And they dread and fear the girl who is a wisecracker and they fear they may be next to swim and a good game of bridge. Otherwise she will be out of the picture.

Boys like girls who are intelligent, but they prefer plain common sense to brilliancy. They like a girl who reads enough to talk about subjects of current interest, but they steer clear of a highbrow who wants to discuss the Einstein theory. And they dread and fear the girl who is a wisecracker and they fear they may be next to swim and a good game of bridge. Otherwise she will be out of the picture.

Boys like girls who are good-natured and jolly and kind-hearted. They are not easily themselves, and it repels them when the little sweeties scratch each other's eyes out and play for decision.

Boys like girls who are appreciative and who repay them for the money they spend when they take them out by showing that they have a good time. And especially do they like girls who go easy on their pocketbooks and who do not order everything expensive on the menu when they go to a restaurant or insist on high-priced night clubs when they step out on an evening. They like the girls who like them, but they resent being pursued and hunted down over the telephone.

And they like girls for a thousand other reasons and just because they are girls.

DOROTHY DIX

Dear Miss Dix: I have a 10-year-old child who runs to her grandparents when mother says "no," and they give her just what she wants. Instead of helping me obtain obedience from her they encourage her in disobedience, and when I try to reason to with them they do not order and stubborn and I am told that I am unappreciative asked whom I would lay things in if it wasn't for grandma or grandpa. I fully appreciate all my parents have done for us, but I feel they are ruining my daughter. What must I do?

Answer: Move away from the sphere of grandmother's influence if you can, but it's a queer thing that your mother hasn't intelligence enough to see what harm she is doing the child.

In these days when heaven knows it is hard enough to establish any sort of authority over children anyway, all of the grown-ups should stand together and back each other up. Children are quick enough to learn when they can appeal from one decision to another and slip out of doing anything they don't want to.

Grandparents regard their grandchildren just as toys to be played with and seem utterly oblivious to the fact that their injudicious spoiling may be forming habits in the children that will wreck their whole lives.

Dear Miss Dix: Do you think I will be happy if I marry a man

Yen Note Is Autographed By Tokyo Rose

San Francisco, July 7 (AP)—The government's first witness at the treason trial of Mrs. Via Toguri d'Aquino says the 33-year-old native of Los Angeles once autographed a Japanese yen note as "Tokyo Rose."

J. Richard Eisenhart of Rochester, N. Y., a prison guard at Yogo-hama in 1945 when Mrs. d'Aquino first was arrested, said he and another guard went to her cell with their request for an autograph.

She wrote on the bill, "Iva I. Toguri" and added, in quotation marks, "Tokyo Rose," Eisenhart testified yesterday.

Mrs. d'Aquino, wife of an employee of a Japanese news agency, is charged with impairing the United States capacity to wage war by her "traitorous" wartime broadcasts from radio Tokyo aimed at hurting the morale of troops in the Pacific.

In his opening statement, special prosecutor Tom De Wolfe said Tokyo Rose reminded the service men of her "traitorous" wartime broadcasts from radio Tokyo aimed at hurting the morale of troops in the Pacific.

who is so jealous that he suspects me of every sort of horrible crime and sniffs for a week if I even speak to another man?

Answer: No. You certainly will be miserable if you marry him. Jealousy will wreck any marriage on earth.

Snead Out in Front in Reading Open

Reading, Pa., July 8 — (P) — Sammy Snead, as usual, was out in front today in the $15,000 Reading open golf tournament, but the story of the first round came from his nearest rivals.

Since the beginning of the 1949 tour, Snead has won four tournaments, including the Masters and the P. G. A. championship and he gave Gary Middlecoff a real run for the open title. So it was no surprise to find Sammy shooting 30-33—63, seven strokes under par for the 6,001 yard Reading Country club course, to lead the field.

But it was only one stroke behind. Only a putt that hit the cup and bounced out on the 18th green kept Little from tying for the lead.

And even more surprising was the third place 65 fired by big George Low, Jr., of Clearwater, Fla. Low, son of a famous old professional usually is seen around the tournaments but seldom enters one.

Middlecoff, Johnny Palmer and Chick Harbert were among the 67 shooters yesterday Lloyd Man-grum and Dick Metz had 68's and virtually all the stars were among the 29 who equalled or surpassed par.

Stengel Seems to Be Manager of the Year

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

How about Casey Stengel for manager of the year?
While the wise guys wait for Casey's New York Yankees to win, the Yanks continue to knock off the contenders, one by one. Commodore Mack's Philadelphia A's were the latest drilled five full games behind the Yanks by last night's 6-2 setback.

Allie Reynolds' route-going performance against the A's must have been encouraging to Stengel who kept "Whisper" in his regular starting turn despite his many knockouts.

Reynolds' 9-1 record is deceiv-ing but there was nothing phony about his five hitter at Shibe park.
Two-run homer by Hank Bauer broke a 1-1 tie in the fifth to give Allie a working margin over Lou Brissie, like Reynolds an all-star pitching selection.

Cleveland, making a nother move, came to win a game and a half of the A's by outpitching Chicago, 8-2, with a 17-hit attack.
Everybody except Joe Gordon shared in the hit parade that enabled Bob Lemon to coast home with his ninth victory.

The Boston Red Sox trampled Washington, 8-3, and chased

New Bus to Visit Hope Sunday

Thru bus service between Memphis and Dallas, via Little Rock, Hot Springs and Texarkana, will be inaugurated Saturday, July 16, according to an announcement made today by R. W. McClendon, operating manager of Arkansas Motor Coach.

The new service will be a coordinated operation between Arkansas Motor Coaches and Continental Trailways Bus System.

A fleet of Continental's big air-conditioned "Silverliners" will be used on the operation. McClendon explained that the new units will be placed on display for public inspection over the Arkansas portion of the route July 8-9-10.

This equipment will be on display at the Arkansas Motor Coach station at Hope located at the Hotel Henry and Diamond Cnfe from 2 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. July 10.

Although thru bus service between Memphis and Dallas has been in operation in the past over other routes, the new continental Arkansas Motor Coach service will mark the first thru bus service via Little Rock and Hot Springs.

"The need for this service has long been felt, and now as the result of agreements between our company and Continental Trailways the thousands of passengers who move between the East and the West every year over this south route will now be able to travel via Hot Springs and our state capital city without the necessity of having to make special side trips from other routes," McClendon explained.

Only two of the six members of Navy's varsity football coaching staff are graduates of the Naval Academy.

Mickey Haefer right off the Senators ball club. Owner Clark Griffith, dissatisfied with Haefer's "indifferent" performance, gave the pint-sized lefty his walking papers after a bad first inning. Haefer walked five, mopped up a run, and allowed one hit as the Sox rolled up a five-run lead.

That was more than enough for young Chuck Stobbs in the game that was called at the end of the sixth to permit the Sox to catch a train home.

Detroit teed off on Red Embree for six runs in the first inning to snap its five-game losing streak with a 9-2 romp over the St. Louis Browns. The Tigers had only three hits in their big inning. A costly fumble by Bob Dillinger meant four unearned runs.

Brooklyn boosted its National league lead to two full games by trimming the Boston Braves, 5-2.
In a night game after runnerup St. Louis bowed to Pittsburgh, 2-0, in the afternoon.

Joe Hatten survived a threatening ninth inning to record his seventh victory over the strength of a three-run Dodger attack on Warren Spahn in the first inning.

Ernie Bonham shut out the Cardinals with six hits for Pittsburgh's sixth straight victory. Dino Restili, the Pirates' fine rookie, drove home both runs with a double of Gerry Staley in the sixth inning.

Lefty Dave Koslo had a night he'll never forget as he hit his first two major league home runs, driving in five runs in the New York Giants' 11-3 slaughter of the Phillies. Koslo now has a 9-0 career record against the Phils.

Despite 17 Chicago hits, Cincinnati eked out a 7-6 edged over the Cubs on Ted Kluswewski's single following Bobby Adams' triple in the last of the ninth. Walker Cooper got his fourth homer in two days. It was No. 11 for Cooper, seven since he left New York June 24.
